PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On day 40 of Gov. Newsom's "stay home" order, we quilters are busy with family, fabric, fears and hope. Much is being done and donated out of the compassionate hearts of the members of this Guild. Kudos to each and every one giving their time and treasure to each and every fortunate recipient. Love conquers all.

Although this will be the second month we are prohibited from meeting, there is hope that a June meeting will happen and surprises await those who attend. One of the things we will reveal by then is the slate of elected officer candidates from your Nominating Committee and the opening of nominations from the floor. I ask you to think about the leadership of your Guild for the 12 months starting September 1st. I commend to you the excellent Board this year who have led with wisdom and creativity. They have often picked up the slack and provided the steam for important projects like our Opportunity Quilt with amazing success over the previous year. They have wisely approved a quilt show for November 13-14 which members are currently voting to approve. And so much more. What issues are important to you for the next year of this Guild? Who would best lead us on those and other issues? Our Nominating Committee wants to hear from each of you about our next leaders, be it you or someone you know. Joanie Ogg-Martin will be nominated for President which leaves 3 elected positions: Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary.

Included in this Newsletter is information about these positions, other committee positions, the progress on masks, duffel bags and comfort quilts, and our virtual show & tell through emails you receive when enough stories and pictures are sent to Jennifer Davey and the Facebook Group Central Valley Outdoor Quilt Show which now has 341 members.

May we speak, text, email and create more during this Quilting Quarantine and enhance our relationships. To all, good health!

Thank you and enjoy!

CENTRAL VALLEY OUTDOOR QUILT SHOW

Since so many of the scheduled quilt shows have been cancelled this year, a valley quilter started an on-line quilt show on Facebook. It provides quilters with a place to show their quilts. Many of our Guild members have already joined the group. The postings have been wonderful! When posting pictures of your quilts, you can provide the quilt name, the pattern name (if you used a pattern) or any information about the quilt you want to share. The Facebook name is “Central Valley Outdoor Quilt Show”. You are encouraged to visit the Facebook page and if you hit ‘like’ your Facebook page will be a mini quilt show almost every day.

FABRIC FACE MASKS – Joanie Martin & Beverly Kuykendall

“MASS MASK PROJECT”

On March 23 our guild delivered the first of many mask care packages to our community. We know many of you have been making masks and sending them to folks who need to be “covered.” But I thought you’d like to know that via our guild we have delivered almost 2,500 masks. Great job!

Reneeta Anthony and Barbara Pearson took on the daunting task of organizing us. They have passed the baton to Beverly Kuykendall (826-8004) and myself Joanie Martin (285-6226).

We pick up masks, deliver duffel bags and fabric and then share masks at our destination for the week. Last week we gave 720 masks to the Community Hospital Organization! This week I picked up masks at three locations and picked up fabric for another round of masks at two homes. It was special for me because I had an opportunity to visit with two of these donors while still keeping our distance. I was reminded how our lives really do go on (at a very different pace) amid the coronavirus.

I’m thinking we will be making masks for our family and friends through the end of this year, and I am unsure as to how long for the guild. But I will be sewing some more to distribute next Monday!

If you would like to help, please call Beverly or myself with any questions.

Joanie Martin

KASES FOR KIDS

Sonja Hernandez & Diana Gardner

Our quilters have been very busy during this Shelter-in-Place time. In addition to filling the Stash Room at Susan Schara's house with completed quilts, kits and fabric donations, our quilters have been busy making face masks for our medical community, and duffle bags and accessory bags for Kases for Kids.

To-date, 45+duffle bags have been turned in, either to the Stash Room at Susan's or to my front porch. Since our Sew-In in February the following members have continued to produce duffel bags (DB) and accessory bags (AB). Their dedication to our project to help children being moved out of harm's way during this pandemic is greatly appreciated.

The list of our most recent helpers is Carol Mills-Henry with 7 DBs and 6 ABs, Irene Allen - 1 DB, Pauline Beaton - 1 DB, Karen Severson- 1 DB, Barbara Pearson - 1 DB, Sonja Hernandez - 1 DB and Diana Gardner - 7 ABs.

There are more duffel bag kits to be made up, as well as two boxes of accessory bag kits at the Stash Room. Both bag kits may be picked up and returned to the Stash Room for your convenience (unless you just want to make a trip to my house.) If you have a kit and are "stuck" on completing it, or have any questions about the kit, please text me or give me (Diana Gardner) a call (559) 978-0706. I look forward to hearing from you and receiving more completed bags. Thank you for sharing a piece of your heart.

DOTTIE'S FINDINGS – Dottie Daybell

May 2020 Findings

I'm appreciating the internet during these strange times when we're all making masks instead of quilts. I haven't left my house for weeks, but I can travel the world via blogs.

1. Diane at Butterfly Threads posts a pattern for an interesting block made from wedges. It's cut from a stack of fabric squares, and layers are rotated.

<https://www.butterflythreadsquilting.com/2020/04/twirlaa-quilt-tutorial.html>

I like her older multi-colored quilt better than her new one, which looks faintly menacing to me! She links to a pattern on Google Docs; on that pattern page, click on File and then on Download to save it.

2. QOV BOM This design by Jessica Dayon alternates two blocks: blue Sawtooth Star blocks and a simple square framed by a red print and a red-on-white print. The framed squares form a linked lattice around the stars.

<https://jessicadayon.blogspot.com/2020/04/riley-blake-blog-tour-fireworks-freedom.html>

The stars could be scrappy blues, but it would work best with two constant prints for the framed squares. I like to eliminate unnecessary seams, and would probably make the framed squares using partial seams with four 2" x 5" strips (instead of her red 2" x 3.5" strips and 2" squares). A virtuoso scrap quilter could use scraps for the framed squares, but to preserve the linked effect, you'd need to lay out the whole top before sewing the corners on the stars and the framing on the squares, so each lattice link is one fabric.

3. Scrappy Sprouts is pretty and scrappy and cheerful. I'm sharing several versions of it, from my trip down a rabbit hole. The original designer is Tracey Jacobsen, and the blocks were first made by a group in 2013 for their friend who was seriously ill. The second link is to a block "recipe" on Tracey's Flickr page.

<http://traceyjayquilts.blogspot.com/2013/05/scrappy-sprouts-for-chelsea-festival.html>

<https://www.flickr.com/photos/8384538@N03/8139607830/in/pool-2089332@N24>

Krista at Poppyprint made a block for that original quilt. In 2014, she used the pattern to make her own quilt for a friend. And in 2015, with Tracey's permission, she further adapted it for a magazine article and a commercial pattern:

<http://poppyprintcreates.blogspot.com/2014/05/a-very-special-delivery-bloggers-quilt.html>

<http://poppyprintcreates.blogspot.com/2015/07/cutting-garden-featured-in-homespun-and.html>

Here's another version from 2020, which is the one that led me back to 2013:

<https://saneandcrazy.blogspot.com/2020/02/a-flimsy-has-sprouted.html>

I quite like the ones from Poppyprint, with their funky flowers atop the stalks.

COMFORT QUILT NEWS – Susan Schara

‘No contact’ pick-up of fabric or kits and drop-off of comfort quilts during this time. Contact Susan Schara (227-9788)

Even in the absence of formal meetings, this guild is really getting things done! Masks, duffle bags, quilt show plans, and 31 comfort quilts (as of April 18) awaiting the end of quarantine so they can be delivered.

We have “no contact contacts” with one another via e-mail and written notes, and we receive and deliver fabric, masks, quilt top kits, quilting kits, and quilts to be bound, all in the safest and healthiest way we can, to keep our collaborative efforts going.

The stash is continuing to be available to members 24/7 for all of your donation items. Need a quilt top packet? Call Susan. Want to do some longarm or domestic machine quilting? Call Susan. Have some quilts ready to donate? Call Susan. (Have Prius, will travel...)

Got Hobbs? Check your sewing room—maybe there’s a packaged, pre-cut Hobbs batting just waiting to be used in your next project. Cut the UPC code from the plastic wrapping, send to Susan, and our guild can qualify for a hefty discount on the comfort quilt batting we use up so rapidly these days. We have one UPC already, so we just need 4 more. (This offer is for guilds, not individual quilters—sorry.)

Keep busy, so the weeks until our next meeting pass quickly. Looking forward to seeing you then.

PROGRAMS- Diana Gardner

Programs are to be scheduled and announced once the shelter-in-place orders are lifted and a meeting date for our Guild is set.

QUILTERS' CORNER – SEW & SHOW

Please send any photos of Sew & Show items to Jennifer Davey (bestillmycraftingheart@gmail.com) for an on-line Sew & Show during our quarantine.

We want to stay better in touch during our shut-in together, so be chatty, share new creations, thoughts, needs and inspirations.

Hopefully there will be many stories your Guild members will enjoy reading. Think of all the UFO's which will be finished!

As often as we have enough material to share, we'll send another email to all members...maybe every week! This is in addition to our monthly newsletters.

OPPORTUNITIES IN THE SJVQG

Hospitality: Help set out food and decorations. Coordinate ideas for upcoming meetings.

Opportunity Quilt: Help organize showing of our quilt and selling of raffle tickets.

Trip Coordinator: Help organize trips to Road to California, Sisters or other shows for fun and excitement. Without Coordinator and assistants, there will be no out of town trips planned.

Quilt Challenge: Help plan a quilt challenge for our members selecting the subject, the prizes and setting up the display of quilts.

Fundraising: Share your knowledge of past efforts to raise funds and help keep dues low. Research and record which were successful and not. Why did some members appreciate certain efforts and not others? No actual fundraising responsibilities. Just help us understand the past and better plan for future activities.

If you would like to find out more information about any of these positions contact one of the Board members.

MEMBER HELP NEEDED
PLEASE DON'T IGNORE THIS POST

GUILD SECRETARY IS REQUIRED
STARTING SEPTEMBER 1, 2020

Our Guild is in need of a member that is willing to record the minutes of the monthly Board Meeting which is held on the 2nd Thursday of each month at 6:30. The meetings are very relaxed and a good time for bonding. The General meeting requires minutes prepared based on events that require members votes.

Board meetings can be recorded on a cell phone for review and clarification or notes taken as in progress. They are typed on Google Docs, printed for review and submitted for approval at the monthly Board meeting. The President should receive a copy of the minutes within 10 days of the meeting. Various other events may require making telephone calls or other activities. The term is only one year but you can stay in the position for 2 years. The fiscal year is September 1 to August 31.

The Benefits:

- 1) You will meet wonderful people and form longtime friendships
- 2) You have the fast track about activities or what's going to happen.
- 3) Know you are able to assist and provide input/ideas
- 4) Learn computer skills you may not be familiar with,

Please contact John Lilly (559) 681-9809

NOMINATING COMMITTEE FOR GUILD OFFICERS

The following elected Board positions are open for the 2020-21 year: Treasurer, Secretary and Vice-President. If you are interested in serving in one of these positions, please contact any current Board member or a member of the Nominating committee which consists of: John Lilly, Diana Gardner, Teresa Orr, Beverly Kukendall, Jennifer Davey or Carol Shervem. We hope to present candidates at our June meeting; however, if the shelter-in-place' order prevents us from meeting, the names will appear in the newsletter and hopefully be presented to the membership at our July meeting.

In addition, several on-going committees need either leadership or help. Check out the list in 'Opportunities in the SJVQG' article. Contact any Board member for additional information.

GUILD TREASURER

SJVQG IS LOOKING FOR A GUILD TREASURER FOR THE 2020-2021 FISCAL YEAR

Want to be active in the SJVQG? Can you balance a checkbook? Why not consider the position of Treasurer?

The treasurer's duties include:

1. Receive and deposit Guild income into the Guild bank account.
2. Review and approve requests for expense payments.
3. Countersign checks for disbursement of Guild funds.
4. Keep full and accurate records of receipts and disbursements of the Guild funds.
5. Present to the Board of Directors and membership income and expense statements.
6. File appropriate State forms to maintain the Guild's non-profit status.
7. Coordinate with the Guild accountant to file annual tax forms.

Being the Guild Treasurer is a great way to get involved and interact with all of our members. This position is a member of the Guild's executive board and would attend Board meeting on the 3rd Thursday of each month. There is an Accountant readily available to answer questions. Interested in becoming Treasurer? Just give me or another board member a call.

PEDAL PUSHERS QUILT RETREAT
November 5th – 6th – 7th 2020 – Thursday – Saturday
Redeemer Lutheran Church
1084 W. Bullard (Palm & Bullard) – Fresno 93711

We're so excited to be bringing you the 2nd annual retreat in Fresno. Come and enjoy yourself pushing your pedal on your sewing machine as we will have a fun time, visiting with friends and making new ones. This year this retreat starts Thursday, November 5th at 1:00 p.m. and ends on Saturday, November 7th at 4:00 p.m. Three days of sewing fun!

This retreat is a no-frills retreat. You will bring your own projects – maybe even finish a few... There will be a raffle – or two – or three. Maybe play Bingo. When you need to take a break, Kiki's is just across the way and Sew & Vac nearby.

This year's retreat is $135.00 for all three days. This includes dinner on Thursday, lunch and dinner Friday and a late lunch on Saturday. Arrival/closing time are: Thursday 1:00p.m. to 10:30p.m. (please do not come early as we might not be set up); Friday 8a.m. to 10:30p.m. and Saturday 8:00a.m. to 4:00p.m. sharp. There will be water available, but are asking everyone to bring your own mugs/cups (remember this is a no-frills retreat).

Lots more info coming, but just a few notes – no tape can be on the walls – so if you want/need a design board bring one that can be leaned against a chair. We only have access to 8' tables – so you will have half a table – your sewing tables should be ok to bring and you can bring your own chair (recommended). More on irons later – not sure we will be able to bring individual irons. And because we're at a church no alcohol is allowed.

A deposit of $35.00 non-refundable is due by July 15th 2020. I suggest you send your money in early as this retreat might fill up quickly. Balance of $100.00 is due by October 1st 2020. I will be emailing out more info in October. Remember this retreat is open to all.

Make your check out to Chris Chapman and please mail to Pedal Pushers Retreat C/O Mary Lou Woody – 1787 Portals Ave – Clovis, CA 93611 along with attached form. Questions?? Call Mary Lou Woody 559-298-3156 or Chris Chapman 559-251-9320 or Nancy Christian 559-203-0188

Looking forward seeing everyone for a fun quilting time with a great group of gals to gab and giggle with.
