PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Memorial Day/4th of July

DRESDEN NEIGHBORHOODS
Halloween

Christmas

One of the things I like best about a quilt guild, our quilt guild, is the cross pollination (I can use this term because it's spring and there are a lot of big black bumble bees on our wisteria!) that occurs when we are together.

We do this when we are at guild meetings and when we meet with friends to sew. But one of the most surprising ways this has happened in the last two years has been through our zoom Coffee Chat times twice a month. This was the "brain child" of Diana Gardner as a way to connect when our lives shut down in March of 2020. I think those who regularly participate would tell you they have learned a lot and have maybe been challenged some as well!

In the past two years we have appliquéd, pieced, trapuntoed many different projects. Questions have been asked and answered and inspiration has blossomed!

Currently we are working on a pattern called Dresden Neighborhood. You can type it in on a Google Search and the results are explosive! It's the pollinating happening on a pattern! I decided to try to paper piece the "spears" to the background instead of piecing them in a circle and fusing it to a background. (My friends know that I do this a lot. I rarely follow a recipe or pattern!)

Hopefully we'll be able to share them in a couple of months when they are pieced and quilted! Please join us! Our Coffee Chats for April will be on the 12th and on the 26th from 11 to noon.

BYLAWS, POLICIES AND PROCEDURES AND STANDING RULES

Committee Chair – Reneeta Anthony

We are pleased to provide the guild members with a draft of the guild's proposed bylaws, policies and procedures and standing rules. The Board took action to approve the tentative draft on March 17, 2022. These proposed bylaws, policies and procedures and standing rules are available at: SJVQG.NET and will be made available at the Guild's meeting on 4/14/22 at 7:00 PM, at Hope Lutheran Church. If you would like a copy delivered to your home, please email Joanie Martin at imjogg@pacbell.net. All SJVQG member comments will be provided in person or in email imjogg@pacbell.net no later than 6:00 PM on 4/21/22. All comments will be addressed at the SJVQG board meeting of 4/21/22. Action to adopt the bylaws, policies and procedures and standing rules will occur at the general SJVQG meeting on 5/12/22 at 7:00 PM at Hope Lutheran Church.

The format and content of the proposed bylaws, policies and procedures have changed to coincide with the existing guidelines of the Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds' bylaws and standing rules. Standing Rules are developed to provide the committee descriptions. Of course, key points of the formerly approved SJVQG bylaws, policies and procedures and committee descriptions are addressed within the new documents. Two years of work by guild members have been invested in these documents that reflect the current purpose and vision of the guild:

“The specific purpose of the SJVQG is (a.) To promote inclusiveness within its membership and board to reflect the diversity of the community. (b.) To promote the preservation of traditional and contemporary quilting and other fabric art forms. (c.) To encourage personal growth and excellence in craftsmanship. (d.) To educate the public and increase awareness and appreciation of quilting as an art form. (e.) To preserve the history and safeguard the legacy of quilts handed down from our ancestors and to add to this legacy the contemporary quilts that will become tomorrow's treasures. (f.) To promote quilting through inclusiveness through personal contacts, communications, meetings, programs, and exhibitions.”

NAME TAGS

Don't forget your name tags! Since we have so many new members, we need to start wearing name tags at our quilt meetings and functions.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH (BOM)

Block of the Month (BOM)
Barbara Pearson & Shannon Mueller

April's block of the month is April Flowers. Please use white for the background. Making more than one block and turning them in at the meeting increases your chance of winning a jar of honey during the drawing. The E-blast has been sent with the patterns and directions.

The Block of the Month for March was Butterflies. Twenty-six beautiful butterfly blocks were donated. Pauline was the lucky winner of the jar of honey. Thank you all for participating.

COMFORT QUILT NEWS – Susan Schara

Things are slowly returning to normal in our quilting world, with more and more members attending our hybrid meetings in person. Those who come are able to enjoy the mini-quilt show consisting of the comfort quilts turned in that night. They see that there is infinite variety in the fabrics, block patterns, and sizes, and even simple, quick quilts can be beautiful. (Members joining meetings on zoom miss the chance to touch the quilts but get to see them in the “quilt pics” section of the newsletter.) Every one of our donation quilts is well-made, attractive, and welcomed by our recipient agencies.

Wondering what kind of comfort quilt to make? Nothing smaller than 30 x 30, please, which would be useful for a newborn in the Marjaree Mason Shelter Program. Quilts for children and teens could also go there, as well as bunk size quilts about 55 x 85. Bed-size quilts would go to the women leaving the shelter for transitional housing in the community. The dialysis centers hope for quilts about 40 x 60 to cover their patients from shoulders to toes during their treatments. And patients in hospice care can benefit from lap quilts, while in wheelchairs, and “nap quilts” while in bed. Patriotic theme quilts are especially appreciated for veterans in hospice. So—generally speaking, whatever size or style of quilt you want to make, you can have fun sewing and the comfort quilt team can find a home for it. Just do it!

WHETHER YOU PIECED, QUILTED, DID BINDING, DONATED FABRIC OR MADE KITS THANK YOU!!!

DOTTIE'S FINDINGS – Dottie Daybell

April Findings

1. Steph Jacobson Designs is doing another Modern HST BOM, this time with HSTs and HRTs. It started in January, but you can catch up!

<https://www.stephjacobsondesigns.com/p/2022-modern-hst-bom.html>

<https://www.instagram.com/explore/tags/modernhstbom2022/>

She mentions to a nice set of tutorials on HRTs. (I had them in Findings for December 2019.)

2. Patriotic BOM Searching around for a patriotic quilt without stars, I found these photos from 2013. The blog is no longer active, but my beloved Internet Archive saved the post.

<https://web.archive.org/web/20210411161245/http://www.twinkleandtwine.com/2013/07/finished-products-red-white-and-blue.html>

It's a Rail Fence variation. To recreate it, you can cut 3" x 10" strips of red and blue prints, perhaps from a layer cake, and 1" x 10" strips of white, to end up with a 9.5" finished block. Set with 2" (or so) cut sashing in dark blue. She used quilt-as-you-go, but that's not required.

3. This is about the easiest "disappearing" quilt I've ever seen! A Disappearing Half Square Triangle. Found on the blog of a quilt teacher from Fayetteville, NC, not far from me. Scroll down, down, down on her patterns page to find it.

<https://abyquilts.wordpress.com/patterns/>

4. Sixteen patches are very popular these days, but I'm not fond of their cluttered look. Tanya, an American living in Japan, alternated them with another block, and gives them room to breathe. Much better! I like the way she did her border, too.
