PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY!

January is now behind us and colds and flu along with it. I hope you are all feeling well and ready to take a class, learn something new, and join fellow quilters in traveling to up-coming quilt shows. Today's topic is the SJVQG traveling quilters and the story of our trip to Road to California.

We recently had our first trip since Covid, and it was highly successful. Therefore, we are now looking forward to taking more trips and traveling together. This means that when we announce that a trip is planned, you will need to make your decision to join us and pay your deposit early.

Road to California was our destination. Eleven intrepid quilters decided they would be very brave. They signed their names on the list, paid Cathy their money and showed up at 'O' dark six o'clock at the Walmart parking lot. The driver was a familiar face and the van was loaded with excited quilters ready to go. And, where was Diana? Oh look, here comes her truck flying through the parking lot! Yes, Diana was late! She had arrived early only to find her phone was at home. So, back to the house to get her phone and quickly, quickly Tom drove her back to meet the quilters. She got into the van as quickly as possible and we took off!

A little more than four hours later we arrived at our destination. Now the fun began. The shopping lists came out. The quilters made mini-teams. The team's discussed which direction they would first go. Would they start at the beginning and work toward the back of the vendors, or would they go to the back and work their way forward? So much to see and so much to do. And, only 24 hours to do it all. Then they were ready and the shopping began.

What a treat! Fabric and threads in all the colors of the rainbow, scissors in all shapes and sizes, pin cushions and rulers, and kits, kits, kits! And, the sewing machines. Longarms, embroidery, featherweights and even a little 1937 Singer that almost came home with me. There it all was, a visual feast spread before us to shop, shop, shop and enjoy. Enjoyment was very much the name of the game and we all enjoyed the shopping, the looking and the trying out of this tool or that one. Did anyone bring home a new machine? Not this time. Maybe next time. We'll see. For the exciting personal details, ask our intrepid quilters. They will be more than happy to discuss traveling with us.

See you on the next trip!

Happy quilting,

Diana Gardner

SJVQG Opportunity Quilt 2022-2023

Applique by Pat Rosander, Pieced and quilted by Sandy Clark.

This beautiful quilt has a white and cream background with an appliqued grape motif of purple with green vines and leaves. The quilting is exquisite with intricate designs enhancing the grape motif with trapunto. Rouleau loops adorn the border along with feathers. Sandy reports that she enjoyed completing the custom trapunto sections, using two layers of wool to create the lovely relief. Champagne colored thread was used to enhance the shadowing of the trapunto. The quilt measures 70" x 71" and was displayed to the public for the first time on September 20 at the Central CA Women's Conference. Tickets for the April 2023 raffle are now on sale.

Carol Mercer's quilt that was displayed at the show

Several of our members travelled to Southern California for the quilt show. Some went on the Guild organized trip and some in smaller groups and some on their own. A good time was had by all.

A big THANK YOU to Cathy Lee for organizing, on very short notice, the trip for the Guild.

Checkout our Facebook page for more photos.

Block of the Month (BOM)
Barbara Pearson & Shannon Mueller

In February, we have an Arrowhead Puzzle block for you to make. It was suggested by Sandy Parker and she provided the pattern. We greatly appreciate the contribution! You can use three shades of any color, but please don't use black or brown. Donating more than one block increases your chance of winning a prize during the drawing. The E-blast has been sent with the block specifications.

Last month's block was a High Heeled Shoe. Ten blocks were donated at the meeting and two more have been promised. These fun blocks will be assembled to create a donation quilt. Fanchon Owen was the lucky winner for her donation to the Guild's Block of the Month effort! We promise to deliver her prize at the February meeting.

If you have any questions about these blocks or any aspect of our Block of the Month effort, please feel free to call Barbara Pearson (559)392-6683 or Shannon Mueller (559)269-5780

COMFORT QUILT NEWS – Susan Schara

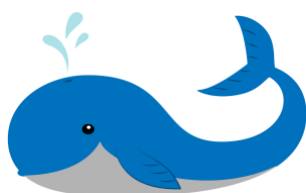

Well, it's a new year! Have you made any resolutions? Think they'll last through February? Consider resolving to increase your participation in our guild's donation program. It couldn't be easier: there are kits available now for 3-yard quilt tops. They don't take long, and after you turn one in, other members will see that it gets quilted and bound. Piece of cake! Or if you are an independent person who likes to DIY, come on over to the stash and choose the fabrics you want, with or without the guidance of the stash mistresses. Just remember that when you visit the stash, you can't leave until you have chosen a double armload of fabric to take home. And your husband won't be mad because it's free! In addition to ordinary yardage, there are also panels and block collections for people who like to have a head start on a top.

Maybe you'll start your selection process by considering what kind of recipient you'd like to quilt for: children in foster care? Dialysis patients or people in hospice? Women escaping domestic violence? Veterans? Perhaps you would just like to work with a favorite color scheme for a while. Well, come on over and spend some time up to your elbows in fabric. If you resolve to make more comfort quilts in 2023, we've got your back!

WHALE OF A JOB

Barbara Pearson presented the Whale to Teresa Orr for all her work with the guild despite her ongoing medical struggles.

DOTTIE'S FINDINGS – Dottie Daybell

Findings February 2023

1. Cathy does wonders with color. She had some red and yellow nine-patches, and set them alternating with snowball blocks. I love the colors she used for the snowballs - not something I would have thought of!

<https://saneandcrazy.blogspot.com/2022/11/snowball-and-nine-patch-finish.html>

2. Patriotic BOM: Here is a free pattern from Timeless Treasures. It would need yardage, not scraps, but is fairly simple to piece.

<https://www.ttfabrics.com/page/56/2-219327/projects/tonga-honor-blue-constellations/>

3. I just found this blog by Caroline in Australia. For the past six years, she's been posting a design every Sunday. They are not detailed patterns, but are design ideas. You can look back in her archives to see over 300 ideas. Here's the introductory description of her Sunday Sketches, and a recent page:

<https://geometriquilt.com/sunday-sketches/>

<https://geometriquilt.com/2022/12/04/sunday-sketch-336/>

4. Quilted jackets are coming back! (But not to my house. Been there, done that, just got another UFO.) Ann's posts have some helpful links, if you're thinking about it:

And Carole made a beautiful ensemble a few months ago. Start with the link below, and use her tag "Quilted Jacket Sew Along" to see more posts on her process. The finished ensemble is shown in the second link (which she forgot to tag):

Quilt Classes with Nancy Christian

Quilt Class with Nancy - $30.00 per class

Come sew with Nancy - $20 per class

At D & J Sewing @ Gettysburg & Clovis Ave

Class hours are 9:30 am - 5:00 pm

Each month I am teaching up to 2 quilt classes. Some of these may become one of your new favorites. I am working with Fat Quarters and Jelly Rolls along with some yardage for borders and bindings. If you don't buy these items, you can also work with just yardage.

I am also offering a Come Sew with Nancy on Wed & Thurs prior to the Friday class if you like to do some quality time with your sewing machine or hand work. You may also use this time to cut out your fabrics and start the class a bit earlier. You may be able to go home with a complete quilt top.

All Books & Patterns that I note on the classes are available from D & J Sewing. The free patterns will be available when you sign up for the classes. These have been some favorites books, so you may have them already. Quilts will be displayed prior to the class so come in and take a look at what you will be making.

Now that you see what is available to you, call your friends and get your calendar out and make a date with your sewing machine. What a fun way to take a break. Come enjoy the fun that we have.

If you have any questions/concerns on the classes or the come sew, reach out to me and I will be happy to answer them. Nancy Christian 559-203-0188

WAYS TO SUPPORT YOUR GUILD

Donations If you are blessed this year and are able and desire to contribute to your quilt guild, please consider us in your giving budget. The SJVQG is a 501(c)3 organization, and we will provide you with a tax receipt of your contribution. Contact Barbara Pearson if you have questions at blpearson52@gmail.com to obtain more information or send a check payable to: SJVQG, PO Box 3256, Clovis, CA 93613. Receipts are also available to pick up at our monthly meeting.

DON'T FORGET HOBBS UPC CODES FROM ANY SIZE BATTING!

Remember to check your sewing room—maybe there's a packaged, pre-cut Hobbs batting just waiting to be used in your next project. Cut the UPC code from the plastic wrapping and contact Susan Schara. Our guild can qualify for a hefty discount on the comfort quilt batting we use up so rapidly these days. We will be ordering one discounted queen-sized batting (we have to pay shipping) and need three more UPC codes. (This offer is for guilds, not individual quilters—sorry)
