PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

April 2023

Another rainy day and then sunshine! The redbud tree across the street is blossoming and I've seen tulips blooming in Joanie's yard. Such fun to watch them pop out of the ground and open to the sun. Tulips are some of my favorite flowers and I will be enjoying the Spring Tulip Celebration in the Netherlands from April 12-23 with my sister.

While I am gone all of you will be busy making more 3-yard quilts, creating lots of blocks of the month, working on sweatshirt jackets and sewing up Dream Bags for our donation to assist the individuals rescued from human trafficking.

You will also be getting ready for the Last Chance Auction in May. One person's trash is another's treasure and our Auction proves that old adage. For newcomers, the Last Chance Auction is a time when we bring the items we no longer want or use from our studios and place them on the tables. Members purchase tickets and write their first name and last initial on the backs of the tickets. The tickets cost 5 for $1.00 and get placed in the bags. A ticket is drawn from each bag and the individual takes the item home. This is a fun evening and everyone enjoys it. Please plan to come to the Auction and take an active part.

While reorganizing my quilting room, I found several more quilts to be added to my WIP list. I am wondering if you have found more quilted items that need finishing? Have you started working on them? Remember, we want to see all your completed projects in our monthly Show and Tell. If you have any questions, please ask Donna Chipperfield. She will be happy to help you.

Happy Quilting,

Diana Gardner, President

SJVQG Opportunity Quilt 2022-2023

Applique by Pat Rosander, Pieced and quilted by Sandy Clark.

This beautiful quilt has a white and cream background with an appliqued grape motif of purple with green vines and leaves. The quilting is exquisite with intricate designs enhancing the grape motif with trapunto. Rouleau loops adorn the border along with feathers. Sandy reports that she enjoyed completing the custom trapunto sections, using two layers of wool to create the lovely relief. Champagne colored thread was used to enhance the shadowing of the trapunto. The quilt measures 70" x 71" and was displayed to the public for the first time on September 20 at the Central CA Women's Conference.

Our April meeting will be held in person and via zoom. Our guest zoom presenter will be Vicky Conley. Here is what she says about her quilts, "I am moved by the wonders of the natural world. I create both abstract and representational work. Having a background in the natural sciences has always caused me to look at things from that angle. Why do the birds act as a group? How is the mountain formed? What causes the orange crusty stuff? I am constantly imagining how I would reflect their beauty in my art. I use machine piecing, both from designs drawn on stabilizer as well as improvisational piecing to capture the feeling of a place or event. The tactile nature of fabric and thread serves both spirit and concept."

You can find out more about Vicky at <http://www.vicki-conley.com/>

Also at our meeting Debbie Gira will show us her solution to borders on one of the "volunteer" quilts.

You can still sign up for WIP (Work in Progress) challenge and for our annual quilt challenge "A Quilted Phrase."

Our quilt challenge for 2023 is very simple. You pull a phrase or idiom out of the jar and use it to inspire your quilt! The perimeter of your quilt must be no more than 72" And that's it. Please include your phrase in the label if you plan on displaying it in June. For any questions please contact Joanie Martin.

We will also be pulling the lucky winner of our 2022 Opportunity quilt and introducing our quilt for 2023. Make sure all the tickets you sold for the Opportunity quilt are turned in for the drawing.

May Program - Last Chance Auction – start gathering your extras from your sewing rooms to donate to the last chance auction.

THREE YARD QUILTS

Barbara Pearson and Carol Shervem

During the last several months we have distributed 50 Three Yard Quilt kits to many of our members. The response has been beyond our expectations. Many of the returned kits are completed or are in the process of having backs prepared by Beverly Kuykendall and quilted by Kim Killian, Susan Schara or Barbara Pearson. All of these completed quilts will be distributed throughout the year to the organizations we usually donate our comfort quilts to.

Additional quilt kits will be available at our meetings. A few pattern clarifications are as follows:

- 1) Please return any unused fabric.
- 2) Bindings: Do not use the directions in the pattern of 1 ¼" WOF. If there is enough fabric, please cut the binding at 2 ½" WOF.
- 3) Three Yard Quilt patterns are interchangeable. You can use any Three Yard Quilt pattern. We do have additional patterns to choose from. In some cases, your quilts can be downsized to fit the preferred comfort quilt sizes previously released by the Guild and available on the website in the section for Patterns.

Thank you for your continued support of our service projects.

DUFFLE BAGS FOR KASES FOR KIDS

Our Guild will be providing 50 full size duffle bags this year. Carol Mills-Henry has been completing these kits on a monthly basis. Thank you, Carol.

Any member, familiar with the assembly of these duffle bags, can text or call Barbara Pearson for kits. The bodies are pre-quilted so the assembly is a lot easier.

WHALE OF A JOB

Fanchon Owen presented the Whale to Wanda Carter for all her service to the guild. Wanda thanked the membership for supporting the Heritage Guild Quilt Show.

Block of the Month (BOM)
Barbara Pearson & Shannon Mueller

In April, we have a fun block for you to make thanks to the efforts of Sandy Parker and Beverly Kuykendall. Help fill our pantry quilt with jars of yummy fruits and vegetables. There are three different jar sizes included in this pattern. Make one or make them all! Please use black for the background. Donating more than one block increases your chance of winning a prize during the drawing. The E-blast has been sent and refers you to our website for downloading the pattern. All future BOM patterns will be located on our website with a few copies available for distribution at the meetings.

The outstanding response to the Arrowhead Puzzle block allowed us to create two large donation quilts. Cathy Lee assembled one of the quilt tops. We appreciate her help and are always looking for volunteers to give us a hand for a month or more.

The 31 Woven Ribbons blocks submitted in March will be used to create three colorful comfort quilts! We are making great progress toward our annual donation goal. Thanks so much for your generous contributions. Beverly Kuykendall donated three blocks and was the lucky winner of a layer cake with a collection of children's-themed fabrics.

If you have questions about these blocks or any aspect of our Block of the Month effort, please feel free to call Barbara Pearson (559)392-6683 or Shannon Mueller (559)269-5780.

WIN A $250 12-MONTH SET OF BLOCK OF THE MONTH.

Carol Shervem

For only one $5 ticket you can have the chance to take home this fantastic package. Starting at our April meeting you can purchase your tickets at $5 a piece. During the sale we need to reach a minimum of $75 before we can draw a winner. However, if we don't get that much in sales we will continue on to the next month until we reach the $75 minimum.

> We have 5 sets of different Blocks of the Month to raffle so this will continue every other month.

Northern California Quilt Council Notice to be shared with all members RE: Pacific International Quilt Festival 2023

Mancuso has asked that we share the attached information with our members regarding the 2023 Pacific International Quilt Festival.

After completing 31 years of the Pacific International Quilt Festival with 28 of those years at the Santa Clara Convention Center, I am sorry to inform you that we have been unsuccessful in negotiating/contracting the Convention Center for our traditional mid-October dates in 2023.

At this time, we are not stating that PIQF has come to an end. Our company is working diligently to find an alternative venue or other acceptable (to us) dates at the Santa Clara venue.

Regarding the Convention Center, the city of Santa Clara signed a multi-year contract on March 18, 2019, with Spectra. This company is a huge conglomerate that manages venues. In a short time, almost all the personnel at the SCCC were let go. These were people who we knew and worked with for many years. In addition, on November 19, 2021, another conglomerate, OVG, purchased Spectra. The transaction needed the approval of the U.S. Department of Justice regarding anti-trust laws. This should give you a clear picture of what we've been left to deal with.

If you are as concerned as we are you may want to contact the following people to express your dismay as well as expressing what PIQF means to you in regards to either your business, your career, and your love for quilting and the textile arts. Your feedback may be instrumental in bringing the show back to the SCCC.

(Below is the link that contains email contact information should you wish to express your support)

<https://northerncaliforniaquiltcouncil.wildapricot.org/EmailTracker/LinkTracker.ashx?linkAndRecipientCode=YqrSeI9erYo1wDARhp1EqcnCPqMS5DpZzktAQ97miOGz7XjPEMp9bKiCE1DYjAnRyZ3gIclPfuPMjg5Fl1S2ZwDgTYexrgdSC4syZ1KHZ4%3d>

We here at Mancuso Show Management appreciate all your support and we will work towards a resolution.

COMFORT QUILT NEWS – Susan Schara

One good thing about rain is that we are excused from yard work for a while, so we may as well spend some quality time in the sewing room. Carol Shervem and Donna Coppin (3) did just that, and produced completed quilts for our donation program. Other members, such as Carol (8), Shannon Brown (2), Joanie Martin (2), and Lois Light (10) were busy making quilt tops for others to finish. And Shannon Brown, and sisters Pauline and Irene brought fabric to replenish the stash. Thank you, all!

By sewing and quilting collaboratively we were able to deliver 7 comfort quilts for DaVita dialysis centers, 5 for Bristol hospice, and 4 quilts for mothers and children in the Marjaree Mason Shelter Program. Remember, into every life a little rain must fall...and that can be a good thing! So enjoy your indoor time, and keep on sewing!

DREAM BAGS

Our guild is hoping to make 50 Dream Bags, complete with required items by the end of October. We are well over half-way there after sew-in's held by Cathy Lee and Carolee Clayton. Only one sew-in left, Friday, April 21st at Joanie Martin's home.

FINDINGS APRIL 2023

1. The Pajama Quilter used to sell some quilting DVDs. She's just released them free on YouTube. She says it's old technology, but the instruction is still helpful.

Quilt Class with Nancy - $30.00 per class
Come sew with Nancy - $20 per class
At D & J Sewing @ Gettysburg & Clovis Ave
Class hours are 9:30 am - 5:00 pm

Each month I am teaching up to 2 quilt classes. Some of these may become one of your new favorites. I am working with Fat Quarters and Jelly Rolls along with some yardage for borders and bindings. If you don't buy these items, you can also work with just yardage.

I am also offering a Come Sew with Nancy on Wed & Thurs prior to the Friday class if you like to do some quality time with your sewing machine or hand work. You may also use this time to cut out your fabrics and start the class a bit earlier. You may be able to go home with a complete quilt top.

All Books & Patterns that I note on the classes are available from D & J Sewing. The free patterns will be available when you sign up for the classes. These have been some favorites books, so you may have them already. Quilts will be displayed prior to the class so come in and take a look at what you will be making.

Now that you see what is available to you, call your friends and get your calendar out and make a date with your sewing machine. What a fun way to take a break. Come enjoy the fun that we have.

If you have any questions/concerns on the classes or the come sew, reach out to me and I will be happy to answer them. Nancy Christian 559-203-0188
